Encourage home enterprise and buy your lumber of W. H. Jones at Irvington.

Dr. Jas. B. Hodgkin returned Wednesday from an extended visit to Norfolk, Richmond and Fredericksburg.

Turn out to the polls on Tuesday and show a good vote for Lancaster county. Small-voting counties cut small figures in the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstead Taylor, Jr., have returned to their home here after spending several weeks with their son at West Point.

Boys, you will have to doff your hats elegantly now to the girls that figured in the Norfolk reunion. They made much ado over our pretty lot down there—but, of course, it did not turn their heads.

Don't forget that the great Lancaster Fair (the last in the State) will be held at Kilmarnock, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. Come to see your friends and the sights, and hear election news from all over the Union.

Mr. Merchant!—"Every dog has his day, and the man who finds himself loaded up with a big stock of Irish Setters, when bull terriers are all the rage, won't do much business." How is your stock? Have you tried to get rid of it by advertising?

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, etc.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

John Rust, an old and prominent negro of Lancaster C. H., last week had his head crushed by falling timber at the mill of A. Hutchinson, causing instant death.

Major and Mrs. Jno. M. Bailey, of Albany, N. Y., who are visiting the lady's home in Northumberland, last week visited the Exposition in company with Mr. and Mrs. Jno. H. Harding, of Hopside.

The Ladies Aid Society of Urbanna Baptist church and the Modern Woodmen, Urbanna Camp, will give an excursion to Jamestown on November 6, 1907, on the "Dr. Newbill." Will return on the 8th. Round trip $2.00.

Mr. T. H. Gill, against whom a Northumberland jury brought an indictment for selling without license, informs us that the charge was erroneous and the one making the report will not stand up to it. From his statement, he will make it pretty clear, that it was all a mistake.

LETTER TO W. MCD. LEE,

Dear Sir: Not one man in ten knows how dear his wasting money or not, when he points. It depends on the point.

With one point, your job will take 10 gallons and cost $20 for paint and labor; with another 12 and cost $20; with another 14 and cost $20; with another 16 and cost $20; with another 18 and cost $20; with another 20 and cost $20; with another 22 and cost $20.

Here's an example, Professor Irvine, of the Academics Mercersburg, Pa., painted the doors of his dormitories every year one year with one point, next year with the paint of the other dealer there—to divide the business between them—till Devoe came to town. The job took 90 gallons; takes 60 Devoe. The difference 30 gallons, $30. He didn't know he was losing $150 a year till he got Devoe.

Another example. When George W. Brown, Union S. Co., painted H. F. Arthur's house first time it took 30 gallons "uncap" paint; repainted Devoe, 11 gallons. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO., Messick & Gunby, Irvington, Va., sell our paints.

SOME WEDDINGS.

On Tuesday evening, October 29th, Mr. Dorsey Elmore and Mrs. Virginia James were married at the home of the bride in lower Lancaster, Rev. Geo. Y. Bradley officiating.

Miss Emma H. Struven, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Struven, of Baltimore, was married Thursday of last week to Mr. William G. Moulton, Jr. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home by Rev. Thomas J. Brodyrick, pastor of St. Martin's Catholic church.

Miss Viola Struven, her sister, was maid of honor. The best man was Mr. J. Frank Moulton, a brother of the groom.

BRENT-KEEFE—Tuesday evening at the Methodist church was solemnized one of the prettiest weddings ever seen here. Miss Evelyn Mabel Keefe and Mr. Dana Boardman Brent, two of Florence's most popular young people, were united in holy matrimony.

The decorations were lovely, the color scheme being pink and white. The church was filled to its utmost capacity with the friends of the bride and groom. The bridal party, ten in number, entered the church to the strains of the wedding march rendered by Miss Carrie Cronenberg. Rev. T. E. Morris officiated.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Brent left on the Northbound train for Virginia, and from there will visit Washington, Baltimore and other places.

North. Mrs. Brent is one of the most popular young ladies in Florence. Mr. Brent, who came here several years ago from Kilmarnock, Virginia, holds the position of chief clerk in Supt. C. L. Porter's office, and has made many friends since coming here.—Florence, (N. C.) weekly of October 18.

CUTLER-SANDERS—A marriage of special interest took place at White Stone Methodist Episcopal church on Tuesday, October 29, at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Lillian Edmonds Sanders became the bride of Mr. Geo. Wiatt Cutler.

The church was never before the scene of such lovely and artistic decorations, the color scheme being white and green. The altar was surrounded by palms and evergreens. "Astoria" was charmingly rendered by Miss Annie Flowers. To the strains of "Mendelssohn's March," played by Mrs. H. B. Treake, the bridal party entered.

First came the ushers Mr. Sam Sanders and Mr. Erasmus Williams, Mr. George Bussells and Mr. Sargent Brent. Miss Annie Flowers attractively gowned in white and carrying white crysanthemums, was maid of honor, and Miss Annie Cutler, sister of the groom, gowned in white over taffeta trimmed with lace, carrying white crysanthemums, was bridesmaid.

From the rear doors entered the flower girls, little Winfrey Cutler, sister of the groom, and little Margaret Sanders, sister of the bride, carrying white crysanthemums tied with pink ribbon. They marched one down each aisle and opened the gates as the party came in.

Little Lucy George was ring bearer. Then entered the bride, leaning on the arm of her cousin, Mr. W. H. George, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Frank Davis.

The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. E. P. Garner, pastor of the church. The bride was attired in a white chiffon over taffeta, with tulle veil caught up with orange blossom broadcloth suits and grey gloves. Both the bride and groom were very popular throughout Lancaster and have a host of friends. The presents received were numerous and handsome. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to Taft where they took steamer for Norfolk, Jamestown and Washington from whence they will go to Mr. Rainer, Md., where they will reside.
